
reinstatement application.

You must submit your reinstatement application within five months of your termination.

If you leave the country while your application is pending, your application will be considered “abandoned” and it will be cancelled.

You may check the progress of your application at www.uscis.gov (Click on “Check your case status” and enter the receipt number found on the back of your check)